A BILL

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4       Congress finds the following:

1           (1) John Walsh, host of the television program
2           “America’s Most Wanted”, has dedicated his life to 3           the pursuit and apprehension of felons and fugitives
4           who have committed murder, rape, robbery, kid-
5           naping, pedophilia, and other atrocious crimes
6           against the citizens of the United States.

7           (2) In doing so, John Walsh has sacrificed his 8           own personal safety and freedom for the good of all
9           citizens of the United States.

10          (3) On July 27, 1981, Adam Walsh, the 6-year-
11          old son of John Walsh, was abducted and brutally
12          murdered.

13          (4) John Walsh and his family have never ob-
14          tained closure for this heinous crime, because no
15          person was ever charged with the crime and the 16          prime suspect ultimately died in prison.

17          (5) After the death of his son, John Walsh be-18          came a tireless advocate for victims’ rights.

19          (6) John Walsh has testified more than 35
20          times before the Congress in support of legislation, 21          and his efforts led to the passage in 1982 of the 22          Missing Children Act and in 1984 of the Missing
23          Children’s Assistance Act, which established the Na-
24          tional Center for Missing and Exploited Children.

1           (7) John Walsh has lobbied for a constitutional
2           amendment that would secure victims' rights.

3           (8) John Walsh, not ceasing his dedication to 4           the safety and welfare of children with the enact-
5           ment of new protective statutes, established a public
6           information television program, "America's Most 7           Wanted", to expose the criminal activity of various 8           fugitives throughout the United States and abroad.

9           (9) Four days after the debut of the program,
10          on February 11, 1988, the Federal Bureau of Inves-
11          tigation announced the capture in New York City of 12          one of its 10 Most Wanted fugitives, David James 13          Roberts, as a direct result of tips from viewers of 14          the program.

15          (10) On May 29, 1988, the Director of the 16          Federal Bureau of Investigation, William Sessions,
17          appeared on "America's Most Wanted" to announce
18          the addition of 3 new fugitives to the Federal Bu-
19          reau of Investigation's 10 Most Wanted list, one of 20          whom was captured within 24 hours after the an-21          nouncement.

22          (11) On July 17, 1988, Robert Wayne Fisher, 23          a fugitive wanted for the murder of his wife, was 24          captured just 33 minutes after John Walsh profiled
25          him on "America's Most Wanted".

1           (12) On May 7, 1989, John Walsh facilitated
2           the capture of a New Jersey mass murderer who 3           had been at large for nearly 18 years.

4           (13) On January 20, 2001, John Walsh
5           profiled 7 escapees from a maximum security prison
6           in Texas, known as the “Texas Seven”, on “Amer-
7           ica’s Most Wanted”, which led to the apprehension
8           of 5 of the escapees 2 days later and the 2 remain-
9           ing fugitives the following day.

10          (14) John Walsh profiled 2,034 fugitives from 11          justice on “America’s Most Wanted” as of December
12          3, 1998, 1,177 of whom have been captured, includ-
13          ing 647 who were captured as a direct result of 14          being profiled.

15          (15) On May 10, 1990, John Walsh and 16          “America’s Most Wanted” for the first time helped 17          recover a missing child, Nicole Ravesi, and aided in 18          the arrest of her abductor, Kenneth Cole.

19          (16) In all, John Walsh has profiled 465 cases
20          involving missing or kidnapped persons, 30 of whom 21          have been reunited with their families.

22          (17) John Walsh has profiled 285 criminal sus-
23          pects whose identities were unknown to law enforce-
24          ment officials, and 6 of the suspects have been iden-
25          tified as a result of being profiled.

1           (18) At the request of law enforcement officials,
2       John Walsh has also profiled 35 unidentified victims
3       of foul play, and 2 of the victims have been identi-
4       fied as a result of being profiled.

5           (19) The outstanding contributions of John
6       Walsh to crime victims and the law enforcement 7       community have come at no cost to the taxpayers of 8       the United States.

9           (20) John Walsh, through “America’s Most 10      Wanted” and through other endeavors, continues to 11      serve law enforcement officials and crime victims
12      through his unfailing dedication to pursuing and 13      capturing dangerous fugitives, protecting the safety
14      of children, and bringing closure to victims of crime
15      in the United States.
